

Food for thought: Courageous leadership in food systems

WHEN: THURSDAY 26 MARCH 2020 9AM – 4PM

WHERE: IACCELERATE, INNOVATION CAMPUS WOLLONGONG

UOW invites you to an exciting opportunity to discuss food systems in the local and global context. This one day conference brings together policy makers from all tiers of government, health, food producers, business owners, researchers and community members to advance a comprehensive regional approach to food systems and security.

The conference will involve a plenary session by internationally prominent Jake Claro (Program Director at the Farm to Plate Network of Vermont Sustainable Jobs Fund), presentations on food systems research and initiatives and a series of themed workshops.

EVENT OBJECTIVES:

- Enhancing knowledge about world leading whole of system policy and practice frameworks
- Strengthening networks, facilitating information exchanges and promoting collaboration

UNIVERSITY
OF WOLLONGONG
AUSTRALIA

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER FOR THIS FREE EVENT

CLICK HERE FOR FULL PROGRAMME

CONTACT:

Professor Karen Charlton
P: 4221 4754
E: karenc@uow.edu.au

